SECTION V — THE ORIGINAL ESSAY

250 64. Note:

(1) Marks will be awarded for plan, organization (as indicated in your plan) and style as well as for content.

(2) Up to 50% of the marks may be deducted for mechanical errors and errors in English.

(3) Space is provided for — (a) rough work
(b) outline plan
(c) finished essay

(4) Warning! Read instructions with extreme care. Failure to follow instructions will result in loss of marks.

Instructions:

You are required to write an essay of approximately 400 to 500 words on ONE of the topics which appear below. You may limit your topic in any way you see fit, but your essay must deal with one of the ASSIGNED topics. Compositions on other than the assigned topics will receive no credit. The style of the essay is to be of your own choosing. The essay may be either the expository (i.e. informational) or personal type.

Topics (Choose ONE only):

A. Based on your own experiences through Junior and Senior High School, what changes would you like to see made in the language program?

B. The mass media of communication (such as magazines, newspapers, radio and television), have been attacked and defended for their influence on society. Give your views on this question.

C. Poetry is the first form of literature to develop among primitive peoples, and it has a wide following in our present society. Explain this continuing interest in poetry.
